Case No. 1:05-cv-00136-CW
District Judge Clark Waddoups

Magistrate Judge David Nuffer

The case is referred¹ to the Magistrate Judge under 28 USC 636 (b)(1)(B). Plaintiff's Motion to Add Michael Weber as Party Defendant² is granted as provided herein.

BACKGROUND

In November 2005, Plaintiff Harris Research (Harris) filed a complaint alleging patent infringement relating to fabric cleaning technology.³ Among other defendants, Harris asked for relief against Jeff Lydon and Lisa Smith,⁴ who operated a business known as GreenGlides.⁵ The court granted summary judgment against Lydon and Smith, finding that GreenGlides products infringed Harris' patents.⁶ A permanent injunction was also issued against Lydon and Smith, ordering that Defendants no longer infringe on Plaintiff's patents.⁷

In 2009, after many other motions were filed by both sides, Harris petitioned to join Michael Weber, who acquired a significant property interest in GreenGlides,⁸ as a defendant.⁹ Defendant Smith responded,¹⁰ and Harris then filed a reply,¹¹ which introduced new arguments for relief under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 19.¹² Smith was given the opportunity to file a sur-reply to address these new arguments,¹³ and she filed the sur-reply on March 1, 2010.¹⁴

ANALYSIS

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 20 provides that additional defendants may be added if any right to relief is asserted against them.¹⁵ Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 19 further adds that some parties must be joined, as long as such joinder will not deprive the court of jurisdiction.¹⁶ These required parties are those who must be added in order for the court to accord complete relief among existing parties.¹⁷ Because Michael Weber now owns a portion of GreenGlides,¹⁸ and because GreenGlides continues to infringe on Harris' patents,¹⁹ adding Weber as a party is necessary in order for Harris to obtain full relief or to give Weber the opportunity to defend himself against the injunction.

¹⁶ "A person who is subject to service of process and whose joinder will not deprive the court of subject-matter jurisdiction must be joined as a party if: (A) in that person's absence, the court cannot accord complete relief among existing parties. . . ." Fed R. Civ. P. 19\(a\)\(1\).

Parties may be joined under Rule 19 after final judgment has been entered, as long as this will not deprive the court of jurisdiction,²⁰ and the newly joined party is not unduly prejudiced by being brought in as a defendant.²¹ In this case, jurisdiction is not affected by the proposed joinder. Indeed, this court has already determined that “Michael Weber’s interest in GreenGildes and participation in the business makes him subject to the jurisdiction of this court.”²²

Neither is Michael Weber unduly prejudiced by this decision. He acquired his proprietary interest after the judgment was entered, from an existing defendant,²³ and knew or should have known of the injunction. As this court has already determined, “Michael Weber should be added as a party defendant to this lawsuit without dismissal of Defendant Smith or Lydon, because the interest of each in the business continues”²⁴
